

Dear Parishioners,

Until we are able to return to gathering in person, we are replacing the print bulletin with an electronic version sent through FlockNote. If you are receiving this message, you already have a Flocknote account and are signed up to receive Parish emails. If you know a parishioner that is not signed up for Flocknote, please share this information and encourage them to sign up. The process is very simple.

I also encourage you to visit the refreshed Parish website. Geno Marnoni has done an excellent job of updating the website, thank you Geno! The website contains a wealth of information, including the parish directory to help you stay in touch with fellow parishioners.

If you have information you would like included in the next electronic bulletin, please email it to me by the third Sunday of the month.

Wishing you health and peace during these challenging times,

Jerrie Allard
